

The Rangeley Lakes

Visitor & Resource Guide

Legendary

Spring: As winter loses its grip on the area, ice on the lakes gives way to deep blue waters, a fisherman's paradise for landlocked salmon and brook trout. Fields and forests come alive as wildflowers emerge once again, the loons return and you may even be lucky enough to catch a glimpse of a newborn moose or deer.

Summer: Enjoy boating, water sports, golf, fields blanketed with lupine & wildflowers, hiking for all skill levels, breathtaking drives & vistas, and magical stargazing, including the most spectacular light show of all, the Aurora Borealis. Choose from a wide variety of dining, shopping, accommodations and much more.

Hiking

Bald Mountain Trail: Take Bald Mt. Road. Trail is on left. Follow marked trail to top of mountain approx. 1.75 miles. Be sure to proceed to fire tower for beautiful views of surrounding mountains & lakes. Good family hike! Picnic table at both top and bottom of trail.

Cascade Stream Gorge Trail: Route 4 south of Rangeley 3.5 miles, turn left on Town Hall Road, follow signs to parking area. Follow trail markers through forested area, trail opens before stream-side trail. Multiple short spur trails to view gorge and waterfalls. Easy, but uneven and steep terrain. 30 minutes.

Hatchery Brook Trail: 1/10 mile on Manor Road off Route 4 just west of Rangeley Village. Easy one-mile loop through woods with 3 lakeshore picnic sites.

Hunter Cove Wildlife Sanctuary: A series of walking trails to view wildlife on Rangeley Lake's Hunter Cove courtesy of the RLHT. Enter parking lot off Route 4 at the foot of Dodge Pond Hill.

Mingo Springs Trail & Bird Walk: A 2 mile walk through various forest types with excellent wildlife viewing. From intersection of Route 4 & 16 downtown, travel north 2.2 miles. Turn left on Mingo Loop. Trail head is 0.4 miles on right.

Piazza Rock: Enter Appalachian Trail where it crosses Route 4 approx. 9 miles south of the center of Rangeley. Nice hike to do with children. Approx. 1.4 miles to Piazza Rock.

Saddleback Mountain: Begin at the Base Lodge and follow the orange stakes on the following trails - Grey Ghost, Upper Grey Ghost and Tri Color. The trails are wide and offer nice views.

Smalls Falls: 12 miles south of Rangeley on Route 4. Picnic area, scenic spot. Cross footbridge. Trail goes along stream to other falls. Children love this area.

MAINE'S RANGELEY LAKES

The pristine splendor of lakes and mountains serves as a perfect setting for year-round vacations. The Rangeley Lakes glisten like gems stretched out below 4,120-foot Saddleback Mountain. Six major lakes, hundreds of smaller lakes and ponds, and rivers and streams lure vacationers for fishing, boating, and swimming.

Play golf and tennis, or take a bike ride or lake cruise. Boat, canoe, and kayak. Walk or hike numerous trails, including the famous Appalachian Trail. Browse a variety of shops and enjoy cultural events and festivals in all seasons. Drive the Rangeley Lakes National Scenic Byway to magnificent overlooks. Registered Maine Guides assist fishermen, hunters, recreational hikers and wildlife watchers.

The world's most brilliant fall colors transform the mountain-and-lake vistas to breathtaking beauty. Fall ushers in winter's equally beautiful and sparkling snowscapes.

Snowmobile the Region's 170 miles of trails groomed with the latest-technology equipment. Trails connect to New Hampshire and Canada. Nordic skiing is superb at the Rangeley Lakes Trails Center and ski the new Saddleback - Saddleback is back!

Inns, cottages, homes, condos, B&B's, lodges, sporting camps and campgrounds cater to every need. You'll enjoy the abundant variety of dining and shopping.

Our seasons unfold dramatically, each enhancing the unspoiled mountains and wilderness. Lush greens; sunlit hillsides of many-colored wildflowers; brilliant reds, oranges, yellows, browns; or stark white result in equal beauty for each season.

When you visit the Rangeley Lakes, stop by the Chamber of Commerce at Lakeside Park for numerous detailed brochures, maps and area information.

History

HISTORIC TOWNS OF RANGELEY AND OQUOSSOC

Originally frequented by as many as five Native American tribes, the Rangeley Lakes Region was originally settled by frontiersman in 1815. Hundreds of lakes, ponds and rivers, and up to 13-pound brook trout were found here, which gave rise to the area becoming known as a fisherman's paradise. This in turn led to many in the local population becoming skilled guides and the building of numerous sporting camps and hotels in order to support anglers and adventurers. By the late 19th century, the area was receiving national publicity and being promoted by the railroad companies who operated two separate lines in the region. Tourism based on the natural splendor of the area fueled its growth and attracted wealthy and influential families from Boston, New York and Philadelphia. The 1920's and 1930's were the 'golden age' for hotels and camps that served families escaping the heat and grime of the city and who began the 'summering' tradition. At this time, railroads extended lines to different in-town destinations and visitors moved about by steamboat and seaplane. The region today remains a popular summertime and year-round destination, with visitors attracted by the scenic forest lands, clean waters, outdoor activities, history and the quaint towns of Rangeley and Oquossoc.

Legendary

The LEGENDARY Rangeley Lakes Region in the Western Mountains of Maine has long been known for its pristine wilderness and outdoor pursuits. For over 150 years, the beauty of its lakes, mountains and forests has lured outdoorsmen and adventurers from around the world, who come to experience this natural paradise in all seasons. Around the base of 4,120 foot Saddleback Mountain are six major lakes and hundreds of smaller lakes, ponds, rivers and streams. These waters are home to some of the best fly-fishing in the country and have a rich sport fishing history that began even before one of the first private fishing clubs, The Oquossoc Angling Association, was founded over 100 years ago. Each season brings dramatic transformations to the landscape and offers its own unique beauty - from lush greens and colors that burst forth in spring and summer to the brilliant fall hues that usher in the stark white of winter.

Fishing

For over 150 years, the beauty of its lakes, mountains and forests has lured outdoorsmen and adventurers from around the world, who come to experience this natural paradise in all seasons. There are six major lakes and hundreds of smaller lakes, ponds, rivers and streams, waters that are home to some of the best fly-fishing in the country and have a rich sport fishing history that began even before one of the first private fishing clubs, The Oquossoc Angling Association, was founded over 100 years ago.

Abnaki Indians set up hunting and fishing camps alongside the area's over 100 lakes and ponds. They were followed by well-to-do visitors who, around the time of the Civil War, were drawn to the region by the same outdoor activities that had attracted the Abnakis. Fishing is what helped bring Rangeley to the attention of the outside world; and anglers who test their skill and luck, especially in the spring and fall, soon learn why. Around the turn of the century, these were the best-known native brook trout waters in the world, yielding giants so huge that visitors had trouble believing they were brookies. Later, stocked landlocked salmon took hold and joined trout as a choice catch. Today's visitor may pursue the descendants of lunker trout and salmon that have made the region a fishing mecca, particularly for fly casting.

RANGELEY ACTIVITIES

Arts & Entertainment: Rangeley is home to a variety of visual arts, performing arts and living art. Enjoy the talents of our local artisans or find yourself engrossed in one of our local theatre's productions or movies. Moose Alley is a truly unique entertainment center which houses: 10 state-of-the-art bowling lanes, tournament billiard tables, shuffleboard, darts, air hockey, foosball, 17 arcade games with a prize redemption center, 22 HD TVs, with 7 giant screen TVs, an elevated stage for live music/entertainment every weekend and a dedicated dance floor.

Biking: The Rangeley area offers some great Mountain Biking. The terrain is mountainous and the views are fantastic. You will experience single and double track, gravel roads, logging roads and wilderness riding. You will find (and go through) streams, ponds, deep forests, and open fields and see wildlife in their natural habitat. See also: WINTER IN THE RANGELEY LAKES REGION section.

Birding: The Rangeley area is a wonderful place to see birds and other wildlife. Because we have such a diverse set of ecosystems within a huge wilderness area, just about any bird that comes to the northeast can be found here, even those that are rare and endangered. Contact the Rangeley Lakes Heritage Trust for information on the Rangeley Birding Festival in early June.

Fishing: World-class sport fishing for Brook Trout and Land-locked Salmon. Many waters restricted to fly-fishing only. An area rich in fly-fishing history.

Golf: Mingo Springs Golf Course and Evergreen Golf Course.

Hiking/Walking: Numerous marked mountain trails to Maine's highest peaks, including the famous Appalachian Trail; woods and nature trails for hikers of all ages, including Easy, Moderate and Challenging trails.

Hunting: Upland game birds, small game and big game including trophy whitetail deer, bear, limited moose permits.

Museums: Visit the Maine Forestry Museum, Outdoor Heritage Museum, the Rangeley History Museum, and the Wilhelm Reich Museum.

Saddleback Mountain: see WINTER IN THE RANGELEY LAKES REGION section.

Scenic Vistas: Explore the Rangeley Lakes National Scenic Byway, a 35-miles National Scenic Byway from Mexico to Madrid, Routes 17 and 4. Just a few highlights along the Byway are Height of Land, Shelton Noyes Overlook, Whip Willow Farm Overlook and Smalls Falls. Another must see is the view from the top of Quill Hill.

Skating and Curling: see WINTER IN THE RANGELEY LAKES REGION section.

Skiing (Nordic): see WINTER IN THE RANGELEY LAKES REGION section.

Snowmobiling: see WINTER IN THE RANGELEY LAKES REGION section.

Stargazing: Rangeley is the closest dark belt location near urban amenities in the Northeast. Without all those lights, we see the stars dripping out of the sky and the Milky Way in all its glory. The best viewing time for the Northern Lights is August to October.

Tennis: Municipal courts are available at Rangeley Lakeside and Oquossoc Parks. Many accommodations also have tennis courts.

Water/Lakes Activities: Lakes, ponds, rivers and streams for sport fishing, boating, sailing, canoeing, kayaking, swimming, water skiing and lake cruises.

Wildlife: Vast wilderness area rich in wildlife for viewing land and water birds, big and small animals including the famous Maine moose.

WINTER IN THE RANGELEY LAKES REGION

Rangeley was named one of the TOP 10 Winter Towns by Yankee Magazine. Come visit and you'll quickly discover why. Enjoy our major winter events, the myriad activities or simply experience the natural beauty of winter in the Rangeley region.

FAT TIRE BIKING

Fat tire biking is very popular in the Rangeley area. In addition to the trails at the Rangeley Lakes Trails Center, fat tire bike riders may use snowmobile trails and some Rangeley Lakes Heritage Trust Hiking Trails. Trails that are groomed include Hatchery Brook Trail and the Maine Forestry Museum Trails. Enjoy fantastic groomed trails with mountain and lake views. www.rangeleylakestrailscenter.org

SKATING & CURLING

Enjoy skating like the old days. Two rinks are maintained for hockey and figure skating by the Rangeley Skating Club. Skates can be borrowed at Ecopelagicon– sizes for the entire family. Everything is free of charge. Rinks are lit until 10PM. Enter at Haley Pond Park, 7 Pond Street, downtown Rangeley. www.rangeleyskatingclub.com. Visit the Rangeley Lakes Curling Club on Facebook to learn more about curling on Haley Pond.

SKIING

SADDLEBACK IS BACK! While the mountain is making significant investments in snowmaking capacity, in the lodge experience, and has purchased the new, high-speed detachable quad, Saddleback will always be about its unique culture; a laid back community of people who love the outdoors, who love skiing and who want to be surrounded by others who share those values. At 4,120 feet of elevation and 2,000 feet of vertical, Saddleback is Maine's third biggest mountain, and its base elevation of 2,100 feet is Maine's highest.

www.saddlebackmaine.com

SNOWMOBILING

Rangeley offers 170 miles of groomed trails connecting with hundreds of miles of trails maintained by other area clubs, and the ITS trail system connecting Maine, NH and Canada. Our trails are groomed daily by the Rangeley Lakes Snowmobile Club. Trails are well marked and an excellent trail map is available. Cookout areas are available along the trails and if you need gas, a place to stay or a bite to eat, there are trailside services for all your needs. www.rangeleysnowmobile.com

X-C SKIING & SNOWSHOEING

Rangeley Lakes Trails Center, located just 4 miles from town at the base of Saddleback, offers 55 km of world-class, superbly groomed trails for classic or skate Nordic skiing for all ability levels, as well as groomed snowshoe and fat bike single-track trails. Full rental equipment for skis, snowshoes and bikes is available. Enjoy snacks and hot soups at the cozy yurt lodge. RLTC offers a special discount rate on Maine Days, the first Sunday of each month (except holidays) for adult Nordic day passes. Mondays are Ladies' Day, 1/2-price pass and a free soup. Tuesdays are Men's Day, 1/2-price pass and free soup and Wednesdays are BOGO - bring a friend! Check website for other special discount days and up-to-date information on events and trail conditions. Trail info is also posted on TrailHub. www.rangeleylakestrailscenter.org
