Narrative: 01/16/2024 1959 Damore, Michael
Female party came into the station around 12pm and wanted to make a complaint about Lavilla Jewelry. Female stated that the jeweler appraised her watch and looked at her ring. Female was not sure if she received her ring back. He recently had a camera system installed and told her that he would get back to her on checking it. He then left a message that he had to have someone show him how to work the cameras. I told this female I would go by and try to resolve the issue myself. I went by Lavilla Jewelry and spoke with the owner, Larry. I was able to watch the reporting party come in on camera, take her ring off on camera, and show it to Larry. He then handed her back the ring and she put it back on her finger. I called the reporting party and informed her of this. She told me that she now had peace of mind and that she would continue checking her house/clothing for the ring.

While investigating a previous call, Call #24-3003, Larry advised me of issue he may have with another customer, an Amanda Castillo. Ms Castillo was recently in the business regarding 2 rings and a bracelet. Larry lost/misplaced the rings and bracelet and stated that he would get everything replaced. Larry has been in contact with Balfour, the manufacturer of one of the rings. Larry also said he would replace a 'Zales' ring, which he estimated at $300. Larry advised me that the bracelet was a gold bracelet and worth roughly $800. When he informed Amanda of the loss, she claimed that this piece of jewelry was a 'family heirloom' of sorts and implied that it may cost a lot of money to replace given the charms that were on the bracelet. Larry has pictures of all pieces of jewelry. He wanted a call log on file for future purposes in case Ms Castillo states the Male party came into the station to report a scam via Facebook. RP reported that one of his wife's friends on Facebook posted a trailer for sale (Elaine Scarpaci, Elaine Fairweather, Elaine Diamond). She wanted $300 as a down payment, $700 total. RP sent a Ryan-Moore-978 $100 via Venmo and went by an address in Somerville today to look at it. The address/trailer did not exist in Somerville. RP was advised to attempt to recover the funds through Venmo. If that avenue fails, he will email Officer DAmore, an OF will be completed and it will be forwarded to CID for a follow up investigation.

Ms Moran stated that they allowed their niece named Katherine Lucero Moran Llenque to stay in their home while she was waiting for her asylum application to be processed. Ms Moran was named as a sponsor by Katherine at the border when she crossed. Ms Moran tried to help her by getting her a lawyer to help her get a work permit. Her niece was not providing the documents that they needed. Ms Moran was told by Katherine that she was abused in her home country of Peru. Ms Moran received information that a man spend 11 months in jail for allegations that Katherine made. Ms Moran found out that Katherine recanted those allegations and it turns out they dated adn that their was no abuse. Katherine found out this information and it led to a arugement just before thanksgiving which lead to Katherine leaving their home and staying with a co-worker of Ms Moran (406 Ferry st in Malden). Since she has left over the last few months Katherine has been telling family members that Ms Moran cheats on her husband and tries to harass her daughter. She also keeps telling people that Ms Moran kicked her out of the home but this is not true. She left on her own. Katherine has been spread lies about Ms Moran to ruin her reputation and she is afraid she will make false allegations against her and her family.

Narrative: 01/19/2024 1349 Lucero, Paul
Note an elderly female in a small older model sedan drove through two cones which prohibited a left turn from North Shore Rd onto Oak Island St. I had to slapped the hood in order for her to stop her advancing onto Oak Island St as a vehicle was attempting to exit. I was able to order the elderly driver to turn around and told her Oak Island St was blocked. Operator wanted to go to and demanded to go to Jack Satter House.

I told her No numerous times...

Observed MV with its hazard lights on southbound on North Shore Rd across from Jackson St. Spoke to the operator of gray RAV4, who stated that he stepped on his brakes but his MV slid into back of MV in front of him. Please note that at time of this accident, it was snowing with a thin build up of snow on the roadway. I then spoke to second vehicle operator, who stated that he was trying to exchange paperwork. I then assisted in the exchanging of paperwork and advised both operators of how to file their accident reports and to what agencies. MV1-Toyota Rav 4 sustained front bumper damage and MV2 sustained rear end/rear bumper damage. Both parties refused medical aid. Both MVs were operable.
