Narrative: 04/29/2024 1912 Papasodora, John
Mr. Gutierrez was advised by DCF to file his neice, Lauren Campos Gutierrez (DOB: 04/02/2008) as missing when she does not return home and does not let her uncle know where she is. While filling out the paperwork, he received a phone call from his wife that she had just spoke to Lauren and that she was on her way home. I advised Mr. Gutierrez that a log entry would be completed noting that he came into RPD to report this incident.

Mr James stated that his vehicle Ma reg:2SNM67 was towed because he did not have a overnight sticker. Action towing towed the vehicle on April 29th. The following day when he went down to Action towing he found that his vehicle had damage to the bumper and grill. A manager there told him that he apologized about what happened and he gave a phone number to his boss named Emily. He told him to call the following day at 0900 hours. When he called Emily she told him that they have to investigate. Mr James stated that he will contact his insurance and he just wants this on record. This is a civil matter.

Narrative: 05/03/2024 0550 Carey, Patricia Upon arrival, I checked the outside of the building and did not see anyone outside on the balconies. I then spoke to the R/P, Alice Hall. Alice stated that her granddaughter had seen the man and that she was inside along with her son, who was sleeping on the couch. I entered the apartment and observed no one inside the apartment other than Alice and her pet cat, Sebastian. In speaking with Alice, I learned that she has had some recent medical procedures and is taking numerous medications. Alice stated that she has had hallucinations in the past and was unsure if it was from her medications. While speaking with Alice, she became more clear and was able to answer all my questions. I requested a medical evaluation for Alice at this time due to her recent medical issues. Alice spoke to Cataldo EMTs and Revere Fire. Alice signed a refuseal for transport, however a note was left by Cataldo informing her primary caretaker, her daughter Jennifer, of this mornings response. Jennifer would arrive around 9:45 am according to Alice. clear services rendered.

stated that she just had a custody exchange with the father of her 4 year old child. The fathers name is Jhon Salgadl. They had a custody exchange at 3:45 at the Revere Police Station. Ms Anderson stated that she was asking him why he was wearing a mask on his face. She was attempting to figure out if he was was sick with covid or some other illness. Ms Anderson stated she has high risk family members at home and needs to know of the risk. He did not answer her and began to swear at her and told her he doesnt want to talk to her. He went over to her car and took the child. Ms Anderson stated that he was pulling the child out of the seat forcefully when she offered to take the child out for him. Ms Anderson stated they have joint custody of the child. She is currently trying to gain sole physically custody in Probate court. Ms Anderson was advised to conduct all custody exchanges inside the police station rather than the corner entrance they used today.

Reporting party has video of 2 men walking into her driveway that appear to be taking pictures of a tree line bordering her rear neighbor's fence. The individuals leave the area after taking pictures. She finds this suspicious. It has happened on two separate occasions. She said she would speak to her neighbor about it. She was advised to call police if the men return.
