

Doing good isn't always easy, but it has never been more important.

This Lenten Season Please Join Us for a
Four-Week Series on "Fratelli Tutti"
Pope Francis's Recent Encyclical on Fraternity and Social Friendship

Our series will run on Wednesday evenings during March, from 7 to 8 pm, starting Wednesday night, March 3rd. Each session will feature 2 speakers with plenty of time for discussion and your questions! To join us, please send your email address to: psm@ccmaine.org and we will send you a link to our program.

What is "Fratelli Tutti"? It is the pope's most recent encyclical and it is based on the teachings of St. Francis of Assisi who invites all men and women to a love that transcends the barriers of geography and distance. It is a social encyclical dedicated to fraternity and social friendship.

We will be featuring popular speakers from around the diocese for this series including:

- Fr. Frank Morin, recently retired pastor from St. Michael Parish in Augusta
- Fr. Patrick Finn, parochial vicar at Prince of Peace Parish in Lewiston
- Sr. Patricia Pora, Director of the Office of Hispanic Ministry
- Deacon Larry Guertin from Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Lewiston
- Deacon Frank Daggett from Prince of Peace Parish in Lewiston
- Elizabeth Keene, Vice-President for Mission Integration at St. Mary's Health System
- Suzanne Lafreniere, Public Policy Director for the Diocese of Portland.
- And more!

Click here to join the meeting in Teams (Teams is a free download)

For more information, please contact
Catholic Charities Maine Parish Social Ministry at psm@ccmaine.org.

