

A photograph of a street corner in winter. A blue street sign with white text reads "Veterans Way". The sign is mounted on a green metal post. Below the sign is a white octagonal stop sign. The ground is covered in snow, with a pile of snow along the edge of the asphalt road. In the background, there is a large evergreen tree, a flagpole with an American flag and a blue flag, and a white building with a dome. The sky is overcast and grey.
