4. Municipal Agent Report

Carrie Concatelli stated the food pantry at the senior center is running low. Carrie let the Commission members know she has put up a new white board that lets everyone know what items are needed each week for the pantry. Carrie stated that there has been more traffic and people coming in asking more questions and seeking help and resources.

5. Old Business

A. Review of Recent Programs

i. Annual Holiday Luncheon, A Villa Louisa, 12/7

The lunch had a great turnout and everyone said they had a wonderful time.

ii. Cookie Tasting, Bolton High School, 12/18

Everyone had a great time and there were a lot of varieties of cookies.

Everyone stated the potluck on 1/24 was fantastic. The February 14th meeting with Deanna Jackson who is a cranial/ massage therapist talked about self-care and was very informative.

6. New Business

a. Review of Upcoming Programs

i. West Point Trip 4/24

The senior center is offering a trip to West Point on 4/24. The trip includes coach transportation, a tour of West Point Academy, lunch at hotel Thayer and beautiful views of the Hudson Valley. The cost is $108.00 and tickets must be reserved by Friday March 23rd.

ii. Monthly Meetings 3/28 and 4/25

March 28th at 12 PM will be lunch and "Folk Songs for Fine Folks". Fun times singing 60's era folk songs with special guest Sandy Hall on the acoustic guitar. April 25th at 12 PM the annual Women's Club Luncheon will host a tea party.

b. 20TH Anniversary Celebration Planning

The Bolton Senior Center was built and dedicated 20 years ago. Paula asked the Commission what everyone would like to do to celebrate. Paula suggested having the 20th anniversary the last weekend in September along with Heritage Farm Weekend with more details to follow. Carrie stated she has already interviewed five seniors to get as much background information and experiences. Carrie stated she would like to interview more if anyone is interested.

c. Election of New Vice-Chairman

Paula stated the board is looking for a new vice-chairman as well as other board members to fill the vacancies.
