We Will Resume Charging Late Fees OCTOBER 1

The month of September would be a great time to 'clean house' and return any overdue library items, while we are not charging late fees. All returns must be made to the outside book drop, after which they are taken into quarantine for one week before being checked in here. Beginning Oct. 1 we will backdate returns so that you are never charged for the quarantine period.

New Titles on OverDrive

Remember to check in regularly with OverDrive for free downloadable ebooks and audiobooks; new titles are being added to the collection throughout the month. So far for September, 16 new ebook titles and three new audiobook titles have been made available.
