Holiday Happenings in Bolton
Saturday, December 2, 2023, continued ....

12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. Read to the Dogs
(Bentley Memorial Library)

Come to the Bolton Library on Saturday, December 2, 2023, from 12-1:00 p.m. for a holiday celebration. Toby, a Bright and Beautiful Therapy Dog will be on hand. Children can take turns reading to Toby.
He loves to listen to stories. Children may bring their favorite book or select a library copy. A special holiday treat and craft will be offered as well. Register for this program by emailing the library at bentley@biblio.org or by calling the library at 860-646-7349. This program is open to all and is free of charge.

─────────

4:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.   Tree Lighting
(In Front of the Library)

Come pick up yummy hot chocolate and cookies generously vented by Alltown Fresh, make a fun holiday ornament, and hear a story from our local librarian. There will also be an exciting Candy Cane hunt and a visit from Santa who will help us light the tree!
