Roll Call of Members: -

Item#1: Motion to Approve the Meeting Minutes from September 10, 2019

Item #2: CODA (Commissions on Disabilities Alliance) - Monthly Conference call Meetings on Wednesday October 2, 2019. This call was in regards to a follow up from last month's call about the about legislation that members would like help to see put on next year's ballot regarding electric shock therapy especially for disabled individuals. They are looking for volunteers to gather signatures for a signature drive campaign to try and get enough signatures so that it can be a ballot question in the 2020 election. On the call it was mentioned that the MOD has filled the Executive Director Vacancy. Mary Mahon McCauley was hired as the New Executive Director. She previously worked at the MRC.

Item #3: Scheduled October Events -

SEPAC Events:

SEPAC will host its annual Halloween party full of tricks and treats on Thursday, October 24th at the Garfield Community School. Families will enjoy games, music, and indoor trick or treating. Our events are open to Revere children and young adults with special needs. We are in need of candy and treats for the children. Donations are always helpful as this is a volunteer group

The Little Ricky Foundation will host their 11th Annual Fundraiser For Autism Awareness & Support Event this Sunday October 13th. For tickets and information please contact Rick Freni at 781-704-1300 or 781-704-1301. You can also email them at rickyfreni@msn.com or littlericky4autism@gmail.com.
