From: Ashley E. Melnik, City Clerk
Subj: Charter of the City of Revere

Governance in our community dates back to 1630 when John Winthrop arrived in Massachusetts and established the Massachusetts Bay Colony in New England. Winthrop immediately placed all of the geographical territory of our area under his jurisdiction and authority. Subsequently, The General Court of Massachusetts, (now the Massachusetts Legislature), was established and by order of the General Court in 1634, annexed all of the lands that we now know as Chelsea, Revere and Winthrop into the new Town of Boston. For 105 years our area was part of the Town of Boston governed by the Board of Selectmen of Boston. In 1739 again by an Act of the Massachusetts Legislature the areas of Chelsea, Revere and Winthrop were set off from the Town of Boston and incorporated as the new Town of Chelsea under the authority of the Town of Chelsea Charter governed by the Board of Selectmen of Chelsea. For the next 107 years our area was a part of the Town of Chelsea. In 1846 the areas of the present day Revere and Winthrop were set off from the Town of Chelsea and incorporated as the Town of North Chelsea. Twenty-five years later in 1871 Winthrop was set off from the Town of North Chelsea as the Town of Winthrop and Revere was incorporated as the Town of Revere under the authority of the Board of Selectmen of the Town of Revere. Forty-three years later, in 1914, pursuant to Chapter 687 of the Acts of 1914, the Town of Revere was incorporated as the City of Revere.

Chapter 687 of the Acts of 1914 became the first Charter of the City of Revere under which the City of Revere operated for thirty-six years subject to the authority of an elected Mayor and City Council.

By vote of the residents of the City of Revere in 1947 the form of government was changed to a Plan E Charter. Beginning in 1950, the new form of government with an elected City Council, including a Mayor elected from its members and a City Manager appointed by the City Council, came into effect with all elective bodies elected at large by proportional representation.

The Plan E City Manager form of government, with a City Manager as Chief Executive Officer, became the City of Revere's second City Charter.

In 1964 the voters of the City of Revere, once again, decided to change their form of government from Plan E to Plan B. In 1965 the Plan E Charter ended and in 1966 the City of Revere commenced operation under the Plan B Charter with an elected Mayor and City Council elected from districts and at large. The Plan B Charter is the City of Revere's third and current City Charter.

The City of Revere has operated under the standard Plan B Charter of the Massachusetts General Laws with the general provisions listed below:

- Chapter 43, Sections 56-63 as amended M.G.L. (Plan B Charter)
- Chapter 43, Sections 1-45 as amended M.G.L. (General Provisions)
