

Employee Dress

The Board of Directors recognizes that employees are role models for the students with whom they come in contact during school hours. The board recognizes the positive effect employees have on students in this capacity

Education, as a profession, demands that employees set a good example for students in every possible way. As adults and professionals, all employees are expected to be guided in their grooming habits by what is most generally acceptable in the business and professional world. Dress that could be described as “gym-wear” is not considered acceptable for employees, unless it is appropriate to the specific class or activity.

Adopted: October 28, 2003

Reviewed: May 4, 2009