

ADULT OCCUPATIONAL EDUCATION

Post Graduate Procedure

Post graduates will be allowed to attend the Foster Vocational Center under the following conditions:

- A. That a post graduate requesting any program will be given consideration only after all regular high school students requesting that program have been processed (space available basis).
- B. All post graduates requesting entrance will be requested to fill out an application that will be submitted to the Superintendent of Schools of the District in which they reside. Upon the Center's receipt of the approved application from the Superintendent of Schools, the Center may enroll the student.
