Description of Helen A. True Educational Fund Scholarship

A scholarship is available each year for a girl communicant of St. Joseph Catholic Church in Farmington, Maine for the purpose of furthering her higher education. One of the criteria is that the youth be in need of financial assistance. If in any given year there is no girl who meets these criteria, then the scholarship may be awarded to a Catholic boy in need of financial assistance.

The application deadline for this scholarship is May 15th. The scholarship application should be returned to the Parish Office at 133 Middle Street, Farmington.

If you have any questions, contact the Parish Office at 207-778-2778.
